

Minnesota Working Family Credit: Working for you!

The Working Family Credit delivers tax relief to individuals whose income is below a certain level. The credit can reduce the tax you owe and provide you with a tax refund.

Am I eligible for the Working Family Credit?

Generally, you must meet these requirements to claim the Working Family Credit.

- You were a full-year or part-year resident of Minnesota in 2023 (with certain exceptions for military members).
- You are not a dependent of another person.
- If you are married and you or your spouse are a nonresident alien, your filing status must be Married Filing Jointly.
- If you have no qualifying children, you and your spouse must have resided in the U.S. for more than half of 2023.

As a Tribal member, you may qualify for the credit and receive a refund, even if Minnesota does not tax you on your income because you live and work on your home reservation.

How much is it?

The Working Family Credit is 4% of your earned income up to $350. The credit is phased out if your income is over $35,000 for Married Filing Jointly or over $29,500 for other filers.

The credit is reduced by a percentage of your earned income or adjusted gross income, whichever is greater. If you are claiming the Credit for Qualifying Older Children in addition to this credit, it is reduced by 12% of your income. Otherwise, it is reduced by 9% of your income.

How do I claim it?

Claim the Working Family Credit using Schedule M1CWFC, Minnesota Child and Working Family Credits.
