Department of Revenue releases video to help taxpayers and businesses navigate the audit process

ST. PAUL, Minn. – Have you been selected for a sales and use tax audit? Do you have questions about what it means when your business is audited? Are you unsure if you have the correct documentation to make your audit go smoothly?

An audit notification can leave an individual or business with a lot of questions. To answer some of these questions, the Minnesota Department of Revenue has produced and released a new web video outlining what taxpayers can expect when they are going through the sales and use tax audit process.

The video takes viewers through the audit steps and offers tips on what they can do to make the process smoother and easier for them and the tax specialist conducting the sales and use tax audit.
