Minnesota Department of Revenue names Keith Getschel as Assistant Commissioner for Business Taxes

SAINT PAUL, Minn. – The Minnesota Department of Revenue announced today that Keith Getschel will join its senior management team as Assistant Commissioner for Business Taxes.

Getschel is being appointed to the position from Director of the Corporate Tax Division. The Assistant Commissioner for Business Taxes oversees the department's operations for corporate taxes, sales and use tax, other business taxes, and criminal investigations.

“Keith brings a wealth of experience to this position along with great perspective on how we can improve taxpayer services and tax policies to better the revenue system for Minnesota,” said Revenue Commissioner Myron Frans.

Getschel has been with the department for more than 34 years, serving the past five years as Director of Corporate Tax. He previously served as an assistant director in the Corporate and Sales Tax Division, supervisor in the Tax Operations Division, tax policy manager, an appeals officer, and revenue tax specialist.

Getschel graduated Summa Cum Laude from Northwestern College in St. Paul.

Getschel will begin his new role as Assistant Commissioner for Business Taxes on Oct. 10.
