Department of Revenue to Roll Out 2013 Tax Law Changes Agency schedules weekly information sessions, starting June 6

ST. PAUL –The Minnesota Department of Revenue is reviewing the tax changes recently signed into law. We understand the changes may require some taxpayers to do things differently and we are working to provide guidance and instruction.

To ensure those affected by the tax law changes have the information they need, we will provide weekly updates, based on when the changes take effect. (See below for a schedule of weekly topics.)

Starting June 6, we will release new information every Thursday, as detailed below:

- 9 a.m. – We will post new or updated law change information and guidance on our website (http://www.revenue.state.mn.us/Pages/law_changes.aspx)
- 1 - 2 p.m. – Conference call with media to review new information and “topic of the week”
- 2:30 – 3:30 p.m. – Conference call with tax professionals to review new information and “topic of the week”

For the latest information, including conference call details, sign up for email alerts on all tax law changes.
