Affected by recent severe weather and flooding across Minnesota? You get more time to file and pay your taxes

ST. PAUL, Minn. – Taxpayers in Minnesota who were affected by the severe weather and flooding will get help if the recent storms prevented them from filing their returns or paying their taxes on time, the Minnesota Department of Revenue announced today.

The department will forgive penalties and interest for taxpayers located in areas affected by the storms. This applies to taxpayers who have Minnesota tax returns or payments due between June 11 and June 23, 2014.

This only applies to Minnesota taxes. This does not apply to any federal taxes.

If you are in the affected area and receive a tax bill, please contact us at 651-556-3003 or 1-800-657-3909.

For other questions call:

Minnesota Department of Revenue Disaster Relief Hotline: 651-556-3016 or toll free (Outside the metro only) 1-800-657-3606
