Instructions for Employees

Minnesota has income tax reciprocity agreements with Michigan and North Dakota.

If you are a resident of one of these two states and you return to your residence in Michigan or North Dakota at least once a month, you do not have to pay Minnesota income tax on wages you earn for work in Minnesota. You must, however, pay tax to your state of residence on wages earned from a Minnesota employer.

If you do not want Minnesota tax withheld from your wages, complete this form and give it to your employer by the later of February 28 or within 30 days after you begin working or change your permanent residence. You must give your employer a new form each year if you want to stay exempt from Minnesota withholding tax. Do not complete Form W-4MN, Minnesota Employee Withholding Allowance/Exemption Certificate, to claim exemption from Minnesota withholding tax.

If you do not complete Form MWR and give it to your employer by the due date, your employer must withhold Minnesota taxes from your wages.

If you want a refund of tax already withheld for the year, and you want your employer to:

- Continue withholding Minnesota tax from your wages for next year, include this form when you file your Form M1, Minnesota Individual Income Tax Return. Do not give it to your employer.
- Stop withholding Minnesota tax, give this form to your employer and include a copy when you file your Form M1.

If you have not yet filed your Form M1 and you will be filing:

• electronically, fax this form to the department at 651-556-5130 at least one business day before you electronically file your return. • a paper return, include this form when you file your Form M1.

If your return has already been filed, mail this form to Minnesota Revenue, Mail Station 6501, St. Paul MN 55146-6501.

Fill Out the Form Completely

If you do not fill in every item on this form, your employer must withhold Minnesota income tax from your wages using the same marital status and number of allowances you claimed on your federal Form W-4.

Sign and date the form. Fill in a phone number where you can be reached during the day.

Penalties

If you make any statements on this form that you know are incorrect, you may be assessed a $500 penalty.
