

Please join us at the State Assessed Property Spring Forum

The Minnesota Department of Revenue invites you to our State Assessed Property Spring Forum.

When: March 8, 2017, at 1:15 p.m. (Registration starts at 1 p.m.)

Where: Harold E. Stassen Building at 600 N. Robert. St., St. Paul (If you cannot make it in—person, you may attend online.) View Driving/Parking Map.

Register: To register, use the following link: Eventbrite - 2017 State Assessed Property Spring Forum. You must register by February 13, 2017.

Please join us to offer input and ideas on factors that affect the Capitalization Rate Study, which analyzes the cost of capital in the utility, pipeline, and railroad industries. Common factors include:

- Current market conditions,
- Industry trends and developments
- Mergers and acquisitions
- New projects

The department will facilitate an open discussion among attendees and present on certain topics.

Note: Attendees are welcome to speak or present at this event. If you want to speak or present on a specific topic, please notify us in your EventBrite registration so we can organize the speakers and discussion time.

See the attached file for more information about capitalization rates, the Capitalization Rate Study, and the State Assessed Property Spring Forum. If you have questions, contact us at 651-556-6119 or sa.property@state.mn.us.
