Determining subtraction

Schedule M1R instructions 2010

Eligibility requirements

To qualify for this subtraction, you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) must meet the age and disability requirements and the income requirements provided below. If you are married and filing separate federal income tax returns, you are not eligible unless you and your spouse lived apart for all of 2010.

If you meet all the eligibility requirements, complete Schedule M1R to determine how much, if any, you can subtract from your income. If you do not qualify for the subtraction, there is no need for you to complete the schedule.

Age and disability requirements

To qualify, you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) must be either:

- 65 years of age or older by the end of 2010, or
- permanently and totally disabled and received federally taxable disability income in 2010. If you did not receive federally taxable disability income, you are not eligible for this subtraction.

You may be eligible if at any time a physician signed the statement in the instructions for Schedule R of Form 1040A or 1040 certifying that you are permanently and totally disabled. If you are a veteran, you may qualify if you received a signed certification from the Department of Veterans Affairs stating that you are permanently and totally disabled.

If you have never filed federal Schedule R but believe you are permanently and totally disabled, ask your physician to determine whether you meet the disability requirements. If so, have your physician sign the statement, and keep it with your tax records. It is not necessary for you to file federal Schedule R with the IRS to be eligible for the Minnesota subtraction.

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) meet the age or disability requirement, check the income requirements to see if you qualify for the subtraction.

Income requirements

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) meet the age or disability requirement, use the table below to see if you are eligible for the subtraction.

You qualify if you are:	and your adjusted gross income* is less than:
Married filing a joint retur and both spouses are 65 or older or disabled		$12,000
Married filing a joint retur and one spouse is 65 or older or disabled		$12,000
Married filing a separate return, you are 65 or older or disabled, and you lived apart from your spouse for all of 2010		$ 6,000
Filing single, head of household or qualifying widow(er), and you are 65 or older or disabled	$33,700	$ 9,600

* Adjusted gross income is federal adjusted gross income (line 37 of federal Form 1040 or line 21 of Form 1040A) plus any lump-sum distributions reported on federal Form 4972, less any taxable Railroad Retirement Board benefits (see line 9 instructions).

Line instructions

Line 9

Adjusted gross income

If you received a lump-sum distribution and used the ten-year averaging and/or the capital gain election on federal Form 4972, follow the steps below to determine line 9:

- 1 From the front of this schedule, subtract line 9b from line 9a
- 2 From your federal Form 4972, add line 10 and any capital gain reported on line 6. (The line 6 amount must also be reported on line 15 of Schedule M1M)

Line 10

On line 10, enter the dollar amount for your filing status from the following:

Married filing a joint return and both spouses are either 65 or older or disabled $18,000
Married filing a joint return and one spouse is 65 or older or disabled $14,500
Married filing a separate return and you are 65 or older or disabled $ 9,000
Filing single, head of household or qualifying widow(er), and you are 65 or older or disabled $14,500
