Margaret Reisdorf welcomed the committee, reviewed the agenda, and gave an overview of where the Department of Revenue is in the Rulemaking process.

The committee reviewed and discussed subpart 4(A). Specifically, how it complies with the Streamline definition, how it could be improved with plain language, and how it could be more useful to Minnesota taxpayers.

At the end of the meeting, Ms. Reisdorf reviewed the outcomes of the discussion and outline next steps. Committee members expressed their willingness to provide feedback and input on the next draft of the rule.

There are no further meetings scheduled for this committee.
