2020 Schedule M15C Instructions

This schedule is not required if you are filing your first Minnesota tax return.

Figuring the Underpayment

Line 1

Your required payment based on 2020 tax amount is 90% of your 2020 tax liability. This 90% option applies to tax year 2020 only.

1. Enter the amount from your 2020 Form M4, less any credits reported on Form M4, lines 4 and 5. _____
2. Multiply step 1 by 90% (.90). Enter this amount on line 1. _____

Line 2

Your required payment based on 2018 or 2019 tax amounts is the lesser of your income tax amount for tax year 2019 or 75% of your income tax amount for tax year 2018. The 75% options applies to tax year 2020 only. Use the steps below to determine the amount to enter on line 2.

If you did not file a return for the tax year identified in the steps below, or that year was less than a full 12-month period, skip that step.

1. From your 2019 return, enter the amount from line 1 of Form M4, less any credits reported on your 2019 Form M4, lines 4 through 6 _____
2. From your 2018 return, enter the amount from line 1 of Form M4, less any credits reported on your 2018 Form M4, lines 4 through 6 _____
3. Multiply step 2 by 75% (.75) _____
4. Enter the smaller of step 1 or step 3 here and on line 2. _____

Line 4

The due dates of the installments are the 15th day of the third, sixth, ninth and 12th months of the taxable year.

If you have a short taxable year, the installments are due on the 15th day of the third, sixth, ninth and final months. No installment is required for a short taxable year of fewer than four months.

Line 5

Each required installment is 25 percent of the amount on line 3 unless you use an alternative method (see "Alternative Methods"). Large corporations, read the special instructions under "Alternative Methods."

To determine the amount of each required installment for a short taxable year, divide the amount on line 3 by the number of installments due.

Line 6

In the first column, enter payments made by the 15th day of the third month of the tax year. Include any overpayment from your 2019 return that was credited to your 2020 estimated tax account. For each of the other columns, enter payments made after the previous column's due date and by that column's due date shown on line 4.

Computing the Additional Charge

Lines 14 through 17

Payments of estimated tax are applied against any underpayments of required installments in the order that the installments were due.

For example, if your first-quarter installment is underpaid by $100 and you deposit $200 for your second-quarter installment, $100 of your second-quarter payment is applied to the first quarter. The additional charge for the first quarter is computed from the first-quarter due date to the date the second-quarter payment is made.

Also, the second-quarter installment will then be underpaid by $100 (assuming that the second-quarter required installment is $200) until sufficient payments are received to eliminate the underpayment.

If more than one payment has been made for a required installment, attach a separate computation for each payment.

If the due date falls on a weekend or legal holiday, payments electronically made or postmarked the next business day are considered timely.

Alternative Methods

If your income varied during the year, there are two alternative methods of determining the required installment:

- Adjusted Seasonal Installment Method
- Annualized Income Installment Method

To use one or both of these methods to figure one or more required installments, complete Schedule A of federal Form 2220 and make the following adjustments for Minnesota tax purposes.

Large Corporations

A corporation is considered a large corporation if it had Minnesota taxable net income (after apportionment) of $1 million or more in any of the three tax years immediately preceding the current year.

A unitary business is considered a large corporation if the combined Minnesota taxable net income of its members was $1 million or more in any of the three tax years immediately preceding the current year.

For Tax Year 2020 Only

The required annual payment is the least of:

- 90% of your tax liability in 2020
- 100% of your actual liability for 2019
- 75% of your actual liability for 2018

For Tax Years Other Than 2020

A large corporation must use 100 percent of its current year's tax liability as its required annual payment unless an alternative method is used for any installment (see previous column). For the first quarter only, the installment may be based on a required annual payment equal to 100 percent of the prior year's tax liability. Any resulting reduction in the installment must be added to the second-quarter installment.

The second, third and fourth installments must be based on a required annual payment equal to 100 percent of the current year's tax liability unless an alternative method is used for any installment (see previous page).
