

Working Family Credit... get credit for working!

Last year's average refund was $710!

What is the Working Family Credit?

It is a refundable credit for working individuals whose income is below a certain level.

On your 2020 income tax return, your income must be less than the following:

Number of Qualifying Children	Married Filing Joint	Any Other Filing Status
0	$29,100	$23,100
1	$48,100	$42,200
2	$54,300	$48,400
3 or more	$58,000	$52,000

How can the Working Family Credit bene it me?

The Working Family Credit can reduce your tax and may result in a refund even if you do not owe tax.

Am I eligible for the Working Family Credit?

To qualify, you must not be restricted from claiming the federal Earned Income Tax Credit and be a full-year or part-year Minnesota resident. To learn more, go to www.revenue.state.mn.us and type Working Family Credit in the Search box or call 651-296-3781 or 1-800-652-9094.

You may also qualify for these other Minnesota tax credits:

- Child Care Credit
- K-12 Education Credit
- Renter's Property Tax Refund or Homestead Credit Refund (for Homeowners)

Can I get free tax help?

From February 1 through April 15, qualifying taxpayers can get free help preparing their federal and state income tax returns. You can get this help at a Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) site if any of the following are true:

- You are age 60 or older
- You are a person with a disability
- You speak limited or no English
- Your income is $57,000 or less

In addition, AARP Tax-Aide sites do not have income or age restrictions.

All sites will only prepare basic returns.

After February 1, go to www.revenue.state.mn.us and type Free Tax Help in the Search box or call 651-297-3724 or 1-800-657-3989 to find a location near you.
