Nonconformity Adjustment Instructions

Purpose of This Schedule

In January 2023, Minnesota law was updated to recognize the Internal Revenue Code as amended through December 15, 2022. However, some nonconformity adjustments still apply due to retroactive Minnesota modifications enacted in the tax bill.

Who Must File Schedule M4NC?

If any of the federal provisions in these instructions affect the amount of taxable income reported on your 2021 federal Form 1120, U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return, you must adjust your 2021 Minnesota return using Schedule M4NC.

Use the Schedule M4NC and these instructions to complete your Minnesota return. The adjustment for each line should reflect the change to your Minnesota return as a result of the retroactive Minnesota modifications. Each line will also include the net adjustments received from Schedule(s) KPCNC for your pro rata share in a partnership(s).

If the change results in a reduction of your FTI, enter the adjustment as a negative number. If the change results in an increase of your FTI, enter the adjustment as a positive number.

Save your entire 2021 Minnesota Form M4, Schedule M4NC, and all worksheets you use in determining the adjustments.

Line 4 – Employee Retention Credit (CARES Act Section 2301; TCDTR20 Sections 206 and 207; ARPA Section 9651)

If you were not allowed to deduct wages due to claiming the refundable payroll tax credit on your federal return, include the amount of the disallowed wages as a negative number.

Line 5 – Modification of Business Interest Limitation (CARES Act Section 2306)

For entities with a different Minnesota combined group and federal consolidated group

If your Minnesota combined group is different than your federal consolidated group, enter 0 on line 5 and include the adjustment required due to CARES Act Section 2306 in the calculation of Form M4I, line 1b. See page 8 of the M4 instructions for details.

For entities with the same Minnesota combined group and federal consolidated group

If your Minnesota combined group is the same as your federal consolidated group, review the following instructions to determine if an adjustment is needed due to CARES Act Section 2306.

The CARES Act created a special rule increasing the amount of business interest that can be deducted for the tax year for federal purposes from 30% to 50%. The Minnesota limitation has not changed. You must calculate a nonconformity adjustment if:

- Your business interest expense deduction exceeds the sum of 30% of your adjusted taxable income, your business interest income, and your floor plan financing interest; or
- You have Minnesota-only excess business interest expense carried forward from your 2019 or 2020 Minnesota return.

Determine the difference between your federal deduction and the deduction allowable using 30% of your adjusted taxable income. Use the federal Form 8990 as a worksheet to recalculate the Minnesota interest expense limitation under 2018 IRC. Write “Minnesota” at the top of this Form 8990 (referred to as Minnesota Form 8990) and include it with your return.

If your interest expense allowable under 2018 IRC is less than your federal interest expense, enter the difference as a positive number on line 5. If your interest expense allowable under 2018 IRC is more than your federal interest expense, enter the difference as a negative number on line 5.
