

Minnesota Credit for Qualifying Older Children: Helping families and children!

The Credit for Qualifying Older Children delivers tax relief to individuals with children. The credit can reduce the tax you owe and provide you with a refund.

Am I eligible for the Credit for Qualifying Older Children?

Generally, you must meet these requirements to claim the Credit for Qualifying Older Children.

- You were a full-year or part-year resident of Minnesota in 2024 (with certain exceptions for military members)
- You are not a dependent of another person
- You have one or more “qualifying older children” as defined by the IRS

As a Tribal member, you may qualify for the credit and receive a refund, even if Minnesota does not tax you on your income because you live and work on your home reservation.

How much is it?

The maximum credit is:

- $970 for one qualifying older child
- $2,210 for two qualifying older children
- $2,630 for three qualifying older children

The credit phases out if your income is over $31,090 for individual filers and $36,880 for married filing jointly.

How do I claim it?

Claim the Credit for Qualifying Older Children using Schedule M1CWFC, Minnesota Child and Working Family Credits.
