

File Your Minnesota Homeowners Property Tax Refund Online for FREE!

Homeowners can file for the Property Tax Refund online for free at the Minnesota Department of Revenue website.

www.revenue.state.mn.us

Type Homeowner in the Search box

The online service lets homeowners securely enter their information and immediately see their refund amount.

To file electronically for free, you must be a homeowner who is:

- Filing an original property tax refund return
- Filing a refund for property taxes paid in 2023 or later
- Living in your home and not renting or using it for a business
- Electing direct deposit for your refund

What you need to electronically file:

- Social Security Number or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN)
- Address
- Valid email address
- Household income records
- Qualifying dependent information
- Statement of Property Taxes Payable from your county
- Your bank account and routing number

File Your Minnesota Homeowners Property Tax Refund Online for FREE!

Homeowners can file for the Property Tax Refund online for free at the Minnesota Department of Revenue website.

www.revenue.state.mn.us

Type Homeowner in the Search box

The online service lets homeowners securely enter their information and immediately see their refund amount.

To file electronically for free, you must be a homeowner who is:

- Filing an original property tax refund return
- Filing a refund for property taxes paid in 2023 or later
- Living in your home and not renting or using it for a business
- Electing direct deposit for your refund

What you need to electronically file:

- Social Security Number or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN)
- Address
- Valid email address
- Household income records
- Qualifying dependent information
- Statement of Property Taxes Payable from your county
- Your bank account and routing number

