

Renter's Credit Promo Post 1

Important Tax Update for Renters

New this year, renters will claim the Renter's Credit as part of their Minnesota Individual Income Tax return (Form M1). Renters will no longer file a Renter's Property Tax Refund return (Form M1PR). This means that for most renters, you will not get a second refund later in the year. For more information, ask your tax professional or visit the Minnesota Department of Revenue's website.

<https://www.revenue.state.mn.us/renters-credit>

Renter's Credit Promo Post 2

New Filing Process for Renters!

Renters no longer file a Renter's Property Tax Refund return (Form M1PR). Instead, they claim the Renter's Credit as part of their Minnesota Individual Income Tax return (Form M1) using Schedule M1RENT. This means that for most renters, you will not get a second refund later in the year. For more information, ask your tax professional or visit the Minnesota Department of Revenue's website.

<https://www.revenue.state.mn.us/renters-credit>

Renter's Credit Promo Post 3

ATTENTION RENTERS:

Claim the Renter's Credit as part of your Minnesota Individual Income Tax return (Form M1). The credit will decrease how much you owe or increase any refund due on your income tax return. You no longer file a Renter's Property Tax Refund return (Form M1PR). This means that for most renters, you will not get a second refund later in the year. For more information, ask your tax professional or visit the Minnesota Department of Revenue's website.

<https://www.revenue.state.mn.us/renters-credit>

Renter's Credit Promo Post 4

New Filing Process for Renters!

Claim the Renter's Credit as part of your Minnesota Individual Income Tax return (Form M1). You no longer file a Renter's Property Tax Refund return (Form M1PR). Renters who previously filed two returns now only file one. This means that for most renters, you will not get a second refund later in the year. For more information, ask your tax professional or visit the Minnesota Department of Revenue's website.

<https://www.revenue.state.mn.us/renters-credit>

Renter's Credit Promo Post 5

New Amend Process for Renters!

Starting with tax year 2024, if you file your Minnesota Individual Income Tax return (Form M1) before you receive your Certificate of Rent Paid, ask your tax professional to amend your return and include Schedule M1RENT to receive your rent credit. Amended returns may take up to 6 months to process. For more information, ask your tax professional or visit the Minnesota Department of Revenue's website.

<https://www.revenue.state.mn.us/renters-credit>