Form TRA Instructions

The Taxpayer Rights Advocate (TRA) Office is an independent office within the Minnesota Department of Revenue that assists taxpayers and protects taxpayers' rights. Contact us if:

- Your tax problem is causing a financial difficulty.
- You have tried and been unable to resolve your issue with Revenue.
- You believe a Revenue system, process, or procedure is not working as it should.

Note: The TRA Office cannot change the law, act as your legal counsel, or give you legal advice.

Common Issues

There are certain issues we can help with. We may be able to help you if:

- Someone is collecting on a debt and you believe that the debt is invalid and that the collection action is unwarranted, unfair, or illegal.
- You are experiencing significant economic harm or are about to suffer undue economic harm because of a tax problem.
- You believe there has been an unexplained and significant delay by Revenue in providing a response or resolution to your problem or inquiry.
- You believe the tax laws, regulations, or policies are being administered unfairly or have impaired, or will impair, your rights.
- You believe a Revenue system or procedure has failed to operate as intended or failed to resolve your problem or dispute.
- You believe the unique facts of your case or compelling public policy reasons warrant assistance.

How We Can Help

We offer these services:

- Significant financial hardship review: If you are experiencing a significant financial hardship, we may be able to help.
- Compromise reconsideration: If the Collection Division denies your compromise offer, you can request that the TRA Office reconsider that denial.
- Payment plan reconsideration: If the Collection Division denies your payment plan, you can request that the TRA Office reconsider that denial.
- Independent review: If you have exhausted all available administrative options and are unable to solve your tax issue, the TRA Office can review your situation.

Do not use this form if:

- You have not exhausted all reasonable efforts to obtain timely relief through normal channels.
- You want to request legal advice or help with tax return preparation.
- You want a review of an unfavorable court decision or judicial determination.

Important Things You Should Know

- Submit a Form REV184i, Individual or Sole Proprietor Power of Attorney, or Form REV184b, Business Power of Attorney, if you wish to grant an attorney, accountant, agent, tax return preparer, or other person with authority to access your account information and represent you before the Minnesota Department of Revenue.
- We may be able to help you more quickly if you include documentation you believe would help us resolve your issue.
- We will first try to contact you by the preferred method you indicated on your Form TRA. If we are unable to reach you by phone or email, we will mail you a letter.
- Go to www.revenue.state.mn.us and enter Taxpayer Rights Advocate into the Search box for more information.
