Freeborn County 0.5 Percent Transit Sales and Use Tax

Starting January 1, 2016, Freeborn County will have a 0.5 percent transit sales and use tax. The Minnesota Department of Revenue will administer this tax. Revenues will fund the projects in the 2016 – 2025 Highway Department Capital Improvement Transportation Plan identified in Resolution 15-192.

This 0.5 percent transit sales tax applies to retail sales made within Freeborn County. The transit use tax applies to taxable items used in the County if the local sales tax was not paid.

For more information about local taxes, see Fact Sheet 164, Local Sales and Use Taxes. It is available on our website, www.revenue.state.mn.us.

Who must register

All retailers who are doing business in Freeborn County and are registered for Minnesota sales tax. This includes sellers outside Freeborn County if they do any of the following:

- Have an office, distribution, sales, sample or warehouse locations, or other place of business in Freeborn County, either directly or by a subsidiary.
- Have a representative, agent, salesperson, canvasser, or solicitor in Freeborn County, either on a permanent or temporary basis.

This includes anyone, who operates under the authority of the retailer or its subsidiary for any purpose. Examples include repairing, selling, installing, or soliciting orders for the retailer's taxable goods or services, or leasing tangible personal property in Freeborn County.

- Ship or deliver tangible personal property into Freeborn County.
- Perform taxable services in Freeborn County.

Registering for the tax

Reporting the tax

Report the Freeborn County transit sales and use tax when you report your Minnesota Sales and Use tax. Each tax is reported on a separate line of your return. Freeborn County transit sales tax is line number 322; Freeborn County transit use tax is line number 323.

Use tax

Freeborn County transit use tax applies when you are located in the County and you buy items or services without paying the Freeborn County transit sales tax.

Use tax is similar to sales tax and the rates are identical. It is based on your cost of taxable purchases. Common examples of when you owe use tax are when you:

- Buy items on the Internet, by phone, or from any business for use in Freeborn County and the seller doesn't charge the local tax.
- Buy items for resale at your business in Freeborn County, and then remove some of the items from inventory for business or personal use.

Calculating the tax

To calculate the total tax due on a purchase:

1. Add the 6.875 percent state sales tax rate and the 0.5 percent Freeborn County transit rate.
2. Apply the combined 7.375 percent rate, plus any other local taxes that apply, to the sales price.
3. Round the total to the nearest full cent.

You can download a 7.375 percent rate chart from our website or call us to request a paper rate chart.

When to charge the tax

Charge the Freeborn County transit sales tax when customers buy taxable items or services in the county, unless they give you a valid exemption certificate.

The tax applies to purchases for business or personal use, even if the customer is from elsewhere or takes the items out of Freeborn County.

Exemption certificates

If a customer gives you a fully completed exemption certificate for state sales tax, also use that certificate as proof of exemption from the Freeborn County transit sales and use tax.

Local governments

Local governments are not required to pay the Freeborn County transit sales and use tax (or other local general sales taxes). No exemption certificate is necessary. But state sales tax may apply.

Handling Transitional Sales

Freeborn County transit sales and use tax applies to sales on or after January 1, 2016, But the tax does not apply to the following:

- Lease payments for tangible personal property and motor vehicles that include periods before January 1, 2016. (The tax does apply to payments for periods that begin on or after that date.)
- The purchase of tangible personal property ordered before January 1, 2016 if the transfer of title or possession is prior to that date.
- The purchase of taxable services, including utility services, if the billing period includes charges for services furnished before and after January 1, 2016, (But the tax does apply if the billing period begins with services furnished on or after that date.)
- The purchase of admission tickets if they are paid for before January 1, 2016, even if the event occurs after that date.

- The purchase of construction materials used to complete a lump sum or fixed price construction contract that was signed and enforceable before January 1, 2016, but only if all the following are true:

- The contract does not provide for an allocation of future taxes.
- The materials are used exclusively in performing the contract.
- The materials are delivered before July 1, 2016.
